Meritrust Credit Union Partners with K-State's Avery Johnson for 2026 College Football Season

Wichita, KS –

Meritrust Credit Union is proud to announce its continued partnership with Kansas State University quarterback Avery Johnson.

Meritrust and Johnson are teaming up to focus on educating and supporting members of the community to improve their lives through financial well-being. Both Meritrust and Johnson are rooted in Wichita, Kansas, and both are deeply committed to community, growth and building strong foundations for the future. This relationship builds on the Meritrust mission to enrich the lives of its members and the communities it proudly serves.

"We're excited to build on our partnership with Avery Johnson and continue creating meaningful connections that inspire financial confidence in our local community," said James Nastars, CEO. "Avery's character, leadership and commitment to his community reflect the value we share, making him a natural partner in creating a lasting impact."

"I'm grateful to continue representing team Meritrust," said Avery Johnson. "Their commitment to Wichita and the people who call it home means a lot to me. I wanted to partner with the people who look out for my community and am excited to continue making a positive impact on people who shaped who I am today."

Together, Meritrust and Avery Johnson will continue to champion financial well-being, leadership and community.
